The music of Freakin' Disco is deep, psychedelic, and groovy. The elemental power of their live performances launches the audience to space. Instrumental electronica.

The band is playing in 9 countries in 2024, among them festivals like Reeperbahn, Sziget, SHIP or United Islands of Prague. They were selected to HEMI's (Eastern Central European music initiative) mentor program and nominated for the HEMI Awards for 2024. Earlier they were included by IMPALA (European independent labels' association) on their '100 bands to watch in 2023' list.

Their third album, TOTEM, was released in July, 2023. The first single, Face Yourself, was produced by multi-Grammy Award winner Steve Dub, producer of The Chemical Brothers, The Prodigy etc. and was released in November 2022. The music video was directed by Karlovy Vary Film Festival Grand Prize winner film director Szabolcs Hajdu and won the Best Electronic Music Video at the Europe Music Video Awards. A remix by producer HRTL (CZ) was also released along with the song.

Their second album, MONSTER, was released in November 2018. The music video of RULES made it to the finals of New York's One Screen film festival and the Berlin Music Video Awards. The video received the Best Director Award at Hungary's Music Video Awards.
